Languages and I
Entry language assessment, part intended for the child.¹

I. ORIGIN

What country do you come from?

From what city or village?

What’s the name of the region/state your city or village is located in?

On the map, draw a heart where your city or village is located.

How did you get to the Czech Republic? Circle the means of transportation you used.

On the map, draw a line showing your journey to the Czech Republic.

¹This form is intended for children, we kindly ask the parents to help them filling it out.

III. RELATION TO LANGUAGES

First fill in the name of the language in the empty space.

Next, circle one or more answers below.

Then color the flowers depending on whether you agree or disagree with what is written about that language. The more you agree, the more flowers you should color.

1. The language I speak the best is: ...................................................................................................

I learned it: at home at school somewhere else

I like this language, it sounds nice.

I think it’s easy to learn this language.

It’s important for me to know how to speak this language.

I would like to read books in this language.
2. I also know how to speak another language, which is: .................................................................

I learned it: at home at school somewhere else

I like this language, it sounds nice.

I think it's easy to learn this language.

It's important for me to know how to speak this language.
